Re: Introducing Andres Haladay Under the Montana Student Practice Rule in Doyle v. State, DA 09-0234

May It Please the Court:

It is my pleasure to introduce Andres Haladay to the Court under the Montana Student Practice Rule. Andres is a University of Montana law student and is working with the Attorney General's office this summer as an intern.

As a part of his experience here, Andres researched and wrote the Appellee's Brief in the above referenced case. I supervised Andres' work and as the signatory of the brief, I remain responsible for the work that Andres did in that case.

In order to ensure compliance with the Montana Student Practice Rule, please find enclosed Dean Eck's certification that Andres is enrolled, has completed the required legal studies, and is of good character and competent legal ability. See Mont. Student Practice R. III.A., B. & C. In addition, please find enclosed Andres' own certification that he has read, is familiar with, and will abide by the Montana Rules of Professional Conduct. See Mont. Student Practice R. III.D. Finally, I have executed and filed a Supervising Attorney's Approval of Student Appearance in this case.

With that, I submit to you Andres Haladay is eligible for student practice in the Montana Supreme Court under my supervision and in total compliance with the requirements and conditions of this Court's Student Practice Rule. Should you require any additional information, please contact me.
